

Mrs. Hessa Al-Tuwaijri is ranked one of the 100 top influential legal Managers of companies in the Middle East

The Manager of Legal Affairs and Secretary of the Board of Directors, Mrs. Hessa Al-Tuwaijri, was voted as one of the 100 most influential members of the General Council in the Middle East: GC POWERLIST: MIDDLE EAST, prepared by The Legal 500. Therefore, these scores demonstrate the important role these influential people play and the extent of its impact on the activities and business relations of the company.

Al-Tuwaijri started her career in 1993 and has been promoted to the position of Director of Legal Affairs and Secretary of the Company's Board of Directors. Her experience in high-level executive conferences focused on the company's business strategies and objectives. Al-Tuwaijri also succeeded in completing mergers and acquisitions and executing a number of joint ventures that are very important to the company, creating a real value that was added in the process.

On the aspects of cooperation between the legal function and senior management, Al-Tuwaijri said: "We communicate with each other and deal with specific issues of particular interest to the company. "In view of its cooperative approach to legal work, Al-Tuwaijri believes that the presence of a larger community of domestic lawyers in the Middle East through specialized professional organizations will be of great help to all corporate lawyers in the region who need to communicate with other companies in the same way as doctors or Engineers through their professional organizations."