

Company celebrates “Qarqeyan” at Bubyon club

As an annual event, the company held “Qarqeyan” ceremony at Bubyon Club, which included many entertainment activities and events with singing traditional songs, as well as competitions, distribution of sweets, nuts and gifts to children.

The ceremony was attended by many employees of the company, their families and children. The children wore traditional clothing for the ceremony and enthusiastically participated in the competitions and events that were held. Acting manager of Communication and Services Department Mr. Dawood Al-Amiri, said that the Petrochemical Industries Company (PIC) tries to strengthen social ties among its employees to promote its social responsibility. Traditional celebrations were held to develop loyalty and commitment to their homeland and link them to their ancient heritage and ancient Kuwaiti traditions and culture, to preserve Kuwait’s beautiful heritage.

Al-Amiri greeted everyone on the upcoming occasion of Eid Al-Fitr, wishing Almighty Allah to accept everyone’s good deeds.
